

City Tour and Skylane Bike Tour.

- At 8 am start for the city tour.

From you hotel we go to the Pak Khlong Talat (Flower Market) it is the biggest one in Thailand, then we will pass a Portuguese village with a stop at the local Portuguese coffee shop.

After this we will visit the Wat Po temple, the lying Buddha with his 46 m long and 15 m high, in the old town off Bangkok.

We will stop also at the famous temple Wat Arun, the other side of the Chao-Phraya-River.

From the Wat Arun we will take a boat to do a small tour on the river.

((please note that appropriate clothing must be worn as these places are very holy and although you are greatly welcomed by the Thai people to visit, respectful clothing must be worn by all who wish to enter)

- The Skylane Bike tour is a must for every cyclist. Start 15:00

Distance of one lap is 23 km and this loop goes around the international airport from Bangkok. On the weekends there are around 10000 cyclist with their nice bikes and dressed fashion. It looks a little bit like a fashion show.
